

- Albert Camus
- 1000 deaths

Hope = expectation for something good beyond present death

- living = always, energies

Incorruptible = unravaged by invading armies = The Promised Land was ravaged again & again undefiled = no face w/out blessing, no joy w/out taint - purest friendships tainted by envy, no marble w/out its flaw unfading = never disappointing, its delight never fades, never withers