

Paddling your own Oar - Acts 27: 7-25

Jan Fleming - "must stop smoking" - If I can't live as I choose, I don't choose to live

- our sense of self-sufficiency = Asent instruction

- Text: Paddle our own canoe = you just a preacher - you stick to your business & I'll stick to mine.

- I don't have anything to say about the officers' eye

If you must, hear this -

I. No Experts aren't always right 1011

The Titanic

1 - This is a day of experts

2 - let take our cue from someone we feel is expert -

3 - Spink, O'Leary, Sturians - Brothers

Darwinism, blood, world flat

II. Sinclair Lewis - Ernest Hemingway

4 - is he expert = X - "Tempted in all points - yet without sin"

III - you

Circumstances contradict O's word

- "It seems the right thing to do."
