One of the great dangers is that we might become bored w/ the Gospel — so many enticing truths,

- 1 John, Tim = Good Gospel, Remember Gal 1 - any other Gospel
- Slogans - "If you can't put it into a peppy phrase, it's not worth bothering w/
 - sounds great
 - makes us happy
- adding trinkets to it, as Tho a Xmas tree, needed to be adorned w/ something to make it shine + sparkle —
we've put so much cosmetics on it, can't recognize it

Reflected in Hymns - Chousses -
"If Terry was - hymn "Really?
Are you sure?" like I was making a life commitment -

- One good thing is you can sing them & no one will know if you're in tune -

"Trying to ~~squeeze~~ squeeze 34
D.T. words into a 4-10 the beat for

Guarding the Gospel
Tim

- Judging Truth - apostle's word Paul's stress on the message, again & again in his letters

- Scripture before repentance
- one of earliest recollections: sign on FBC, Ft. Smith - "Christ died for our sins."
