

Intro - Identity Crisis - individual lost in the institution, the citizen lost in city, student lost in school -
- just numbers - a social security robot w/ a pocket full of credit cards label a-z, auto taken to 3rd row -
- humanity me big Unknow, living in a distinctive flux
- Church losing its identity = we've been assimilated & amalgamated homogenized into the age Pilgrims Progress = Xian visited Vanity Fair, the 2 town inhabitants were so different they seemed like barbarians to each other.
Expt - Have tried to Xianize Vanity Fair

11th Commandment - "Thou shalt not be different"

I - Our Identity as Passer by our Difference

- ① Everyone w/ same name

② Xian visiting Vanity Fair

3 - No - fold = Strangers = aliens, non-citizen

Pilgrim = settled here temporarily - moving on Life is a Bridge = Pass over it or build house on it

- The Church must forget this falls into heresy either a stranger to earth or to Heaven

II - Our Identity is protected by Disciplines

abstain = hold self aloof war = strategy = against - soul = civil war

- every vocation has its discipline - even being football, piano

III - Our Identity ——— Demonstrated

Honest = live outwardly what we are inwardly live inside out

Behold = spiritual perception = see hand of God in life.
