

Analysis

The Fountain = Jesus

Thirsty, empty, broken, = believing

The belly receiving water = the inner man

The Water = the Holy Spirit

The flowing Rivers = life-giving influence on others.

The abundance of the latter is indicated by the plural "rivers," saving influences in various directions of different kinds.

Whoever heard of one mouthful of water producing a river!

Rivers picture the fact that the believer will resemble Jesus himself in that he will help to quench the thirst of many others.
