

REVIVAL... FEBRUARY 21 THROUGH 28

PASTOR'S CORNER

GOD'S BOTTLE POURED OUT

Revelation 5:8 speaks of a bottle in which God keeps the prayers of the saints. Not a single prayer of God's people is ever forgotten!! We may pray for years without seeing with the eyes of flesh the answer, but God is faithful, "who answers while we are speaking."

Last Sunday night God poured out this bottle and answered prayers nearly ten years old! It was a glorious experience, one that can be topped only by the Return of the Lord.

And... last summer one of our young couples requested prayer for the salvation of their parents. This past week God used tragedy to answer that prayer.

And... God strangely impressed one of our members to pray for the salvation of a person she didn't even know—and God answered!

What a thrill to see the words of Jesus come true before our eyes — "IF YE SHALL ASK ANYTHING IN MY NAME, I WILL DO IT." John 14:14

LET'S STUDY THE BOOK OF REVELATION

Three good reasons for studying this book:

- 1. It unveils Jesus Christ in glory and majesty.
2. It's the only book of prophecy in the New Testament.
3. A special blessing is given to those who read, and obey it.

We began last Sunday and will continue this week at 5:30 in Fellowship Hall.

WORLD MISSION OFFERING

Our offering has increased to $10,338.00. Joe Hadwick, chairman of our Finance, says that this past year we gave to missions THREE TIMES as much as we had ever given in the history of MBCC. Praise God for causing us to abound in this grace.

PRAY FOR REVIVAL

Carey Miller, the illustrious pastor of the great Central Baptist Church in Aurora, Colorado will be our evangelist. I see a cloud about the size of a man's hand on the horizon—God is preparing showers of revival. Let's get ready to receive them.

FOR THE LADIES

January 19—BAPTIST WOMEN meet. Round Table — Book study on prayer and discussion time. Meet in old auditorium. Bring a sack lunch for the children.

7TH GRADE CHOIR RETREAT COMING

All 7th Graders who are now in choir or who will join this month are eligible to attend a two-day retreat at Mt. Lebanon January 29-30. Reservation cards can be picked up from Mrs. Dianne Walker this Sunday in choir at 5:00 p.m. If you intend to join you should do it this week or next to be eligible to attend the retreat.

Cost of the retreat is $4.50. All details will be available next week.

YOUTH MISSION TOUR SET

It is now confirmed. The Youth Mission Tour will be during the week of April 4-10 this spring. There will be many details to be worked out and planned these next few days and I urge all of you to join me in prayer that we will be in the will of God as we plan and prepare.

In the meantime—please youth—do not miss Sunday rehearsals and services.

World Religious News Roundup

ITALY'S FIRST DIVORCE

MODENA, Italy — Italy's first divorce in modern history was granted here under terms of the new divorce law enacted Dec. 18. The divorced couple married in 1963, separated a year later, and obtained a legal separation in 1968.

DEAN OF WINDSOR

LONDON, Eng. — Anglican Bishop Lancelot Fleming, Norwich, will be the new Dean of Windsor and senior chaplain to Queen Elizabeth. He is to be installed in July.

ALL-MUSLIM CLASS

GAZA — All 19 students in the current class of nurses at Baptist Hospital here are Muslims from Gaza. That has required revision of some of the hospital's Christian worship service approaches.

DISCIPLE PROMOTED

SEATTLE, Wash. — James A. Noe, prominent in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Washington, has been elevated to judge of Superior Court by Gov. Daniel Evans.

NEW VIEW OF MARY

ADRIAN, Mich. — The Michigan Christian Advocate, United Methodist publication, has suggested editorially that Protestants "do more justice to Mary by taking her motherhood with its theological implications a little more seriously."

AGAINST RACISM

ROME, Italy — High-level representatives of World Judaism and the Roman Catholic Church agreed here to combine forces and talents to fight racial discrimination and to work together on questions of justice, peace, human rights, and religious liberties.
