FAREWELL SCHOEPPEY

THIS SUNDAY IS THE LAST SUNDAY that the Schoeppeys will be with us and all MBBCers will want to be present Sunday night as we honor Jack and his family.

Jack Schoeppey

I KNOW THAT MANY OF YOU ARE ALREADY PRAYING that God will lead the right man to us. The position that Jack is vacating is a very important one and nothing less than God's man will be adequate to fill it. God already has the man waiting and our part is simply to wait upon Him as He reveals who that man is.

One of the special blessings of being the pastor of MBBC is the wonderful staff God has given me to work with — they are not only fellow workers but deep, personal friends and it is one of the great joys of my ministry to work with them. I have never witnessed a fellowship and love among staff members as we have here, and I know God is going to continue to make it that way.

as i see it

And this concludes AS I SEE IT as far as a weekly article is concerned.

And it has been 12 glorious years ... I thank the Lord for them and for you ... It's so easy to say Praise the Lord for what these years have meant to me ... knowing you, serving with you, a great pastor and staff, the Sweet, Sweet Spirit, and So Much More ... And looking in retrospect even those few major crises were so used by the Lord to become the greatest area of blessing.

And it's been so enjoyable being your First and Only Educational Director — growing up together — physically, spiritually, statistically ... and the contributions you have made to me and to my family ... INNUMERABLE! ... IMMEASURABLE! ... UNFORGETTABLE!! ... and that adds up to FANTASTIC!

And to the future ... I have learned more about how to live, to do and to be (and some things NOT to do) ... and these experiences that we have shared together will be a continuing part of my ministry. I am fully convinced that all we learn and experience is simply preparation for future use by and for our Lord.

And some glad morning ...

Schoeppey
