

JACK SCHOEPPEY BEGINS ELEVENTH YEAR

PASTOR'S CORNER

THANK YOU JACK AND FRANCES SCHOEPPEY

For ten years of faithful and fruitful service... For ten years of loyal support of your pastor... For ten years of Christian fellowship and friendship... For ten years of Christ-like leadership and example...

May God give you to us for many, many years to come, is our prayer.

PRaise THE LORD FOR LAST WEEK

We're eternally grateful to God for the wonderful blessings of our Christian Life Conference with John Hunter. I've never heard Dr. Hunter preach and teach better! At the beginning of the week, he prayed that God would make this the greatest week in the lives of many people.

YOUR PRAYER SUPPORT NEEDED AGAIN

October 22, 23 I will be speaking on "The Spirit-Filled Life and Home" at a couples retreat for the Castle Hills Baptist Church in San Antonio. As always, you are partners with me in this ministry and I will be counting heavily upon your intercession on my behalf.

As I See It!

OVERWHELMED IS A SLIGHT UNDERSTATEMENT

It's seldom that I am speechless, but that I was Sunday morning as MBBC presented Frances and me the beautiful silver serving set. But I did feel a lot of things even though I couldn't verbalize them. I can't say "thank you" enough for the gift and for what you have meant to us during these ten years.

During the last few weeks as I have been approaching this anniversary time, I've been doing a lot of reminiscing... about people... and buildings... victories and defeats... programs... Most of them are still very fresh on my mind. Especially the things that worked! I still never cease to be amazed. Even more so now as God moves in a special way in and through us.

And the Lord has so much more in store for MBBC. Though some of us have been here for a short while, and others will be leaving soon, MBBC will continue. And her future certainly promises much more than her past. Especially as we allow Him to do His work through us.

A WORD FROM WARD

Our highest thanks to Jim Brewer for his life and ministry among us. Our Lord was gracious as always and blessed those who were faithful to attend.

Witnessing is a Way of Life not just something you whip on somebody when you feel guilty. My prayer is that God will finish what He has started.

Saturday, 10:00 A.M., we will meet for BOLDNESS CLUB. We will pray for God's power, review witnessing techniques, then go out to share our Saviour.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

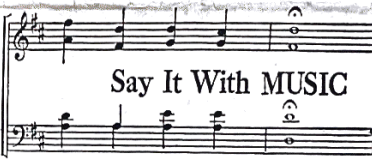

Saturday afternoon at 3:30 we will go to St. Luke's Catholic Church for a discussion of their service and doctrine. Questions and answers will follow. Meet here at 3:15.

Contrary to Hey Youth, Truth will be here Saturday night, November 13, instead of the 14th.

SOUL SESSION—Here's your chance to rap with your pastor. Sunday night after church we will meet with the pastor for talk and talk back. You don't want to miss this.

Say It With MUSIC

YOUNG MUSICIANS ARE A HIT MBBC's new edition of the "Young Musicians" captured the hearts of the people last Sunday evening. To see 73 boys and girls and to hear beautiful music from them was a blessing.

The "Young Musicians" meet Wednesdays at 6:30 P.M. for rehearsal. If your child is not in—you must enrol them right away so that they can be working on the Christmas music.

SUNDAY MORNING T.V. Dallas Baptist Association now has a 15 minute T.V. program each Sunday morning—Channel 4, 7:30 to 7:45 A.M. This is a short talk by one of the Dallas county pastors and music by different groups from the churches.

Our own "Carillons", women's ensemble will sing on the program Sunday October 31. Also, watch James Robison's great T.V. program Channel 8, 8:30-9:00 A.M. each Sunday.
