

An Edition of DALLAS WORLD

[WALL-CHURCH PRESS]

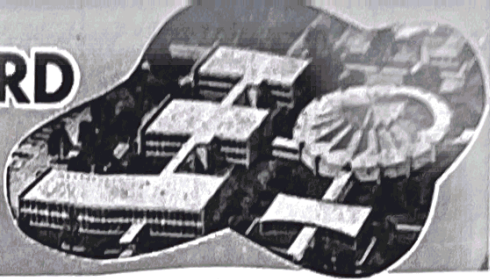

Trade Mark Registered, U. S. Patent Office

Second-Class Postage Paid at Dallas, Texas Published Weekly

MACARTHUR BOULEVARD

Baptist Church

2616 MacArthur Boulevard

Vol. 58—No. 18 Second-Class Postage Paid at Dallas, Texas, Published Weekly Thomas Bldg., 1314 Wood, DALLAS, Texas 75202 DALLAS, TEXAS, FRIDAY, DEC. 29, 1972 (One Section) Under edition plan ninety-five cents minimum to publisher. Individual subscription price $1.95 a year in advance. Any church may have its own FEEDBACK Form. Tell your neighbor church—Ask for information.

WHAT A YEAR THIS HAS BEEN!

— For Thoughtful Reading —

WIDESPREAD NEED — We have entered the new year with special excitement because of the warm feelings left by the Christmas and New Year's celebrations. We remembered the poor, the crippled, the homeless. We expressed our appreciation to friends, the mailman, and the milkman. We sang beautiful carols. We honored the infant Jesus. We spent half a night's vigil on New Year's Eve — part of it at church.

Now that it is all over, we must ask whether all these activities really honored the Lord Jesus.

As we have noted in our scripture, God sometimes rejects the offerings men bring Him. Clearly, God is not interested in the offerings men bring Him unless they are accompanied by obedience of mind and heart.

The need is widespread to reexamine our lives, our sacrifices, and our obedience. Are we living to please ourselves and make a favorable impression on the public around us? or is the Lord real to us? — The Upper Room.

NEW YEAR, NEW LIFE — We can throw away the pages of our desk calendars, but we cannot throw away the days of the past. Some we would like to remember — days of joy, days of victory. Others we would like to forget — days of sorrow, days of defeat.

Paul tells us he is forgetting the past and looking forward eagerly to the future.

We can start on New Year's Day with a new calendar. This is a time for taking stock of ourselves. With Christ's help we can sweep away old resentments and prejudices. We can repent of our sins and find forgiveness. Then we can live with the forward look, for God forgives and forgets. — Helen G. Jefferson.

—The Lighter Side of Life—

ACCURATE CONCLUSION — A tourist stopped at a combination service station and general store in the back country. While his car was being serviced, he noticed an ol-timer basking in the afternoon sun and holding a short piece of rope.

The tourist walked over to him and asked, "What have you there?"

"This is a weather gauge, sonny," he said. "How can you possibly tell the weather with a piece of rope?" the tourist wanted to know.

"It's simple, sonny," was the droll answer. "When the rope swings back and forth, it's windy and when it gits wet, it's raining." — The Link.

CHARITABLE — "Mother," said the little girl, "may I have a dime for the old man who is crying outside?"

"Yes, dear," replied Mama, "but what is he crying about?"

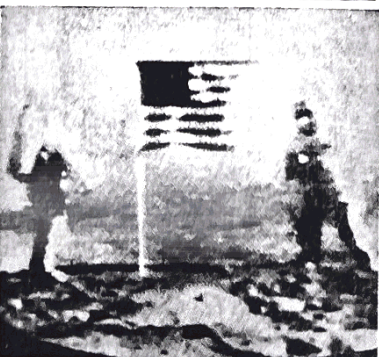

"He's crying: 'Ice cream cones-ten cents' — The Christian.

NO REPEATS — Hubby: "I can't eat this stuff." Young Bride: "Never mind, dear, I have some lovely recipes for making leftovers."

Hubby: "In that case I'll eat it now." — Cheer.

—Post Script—

The happiest people are those who are too busy to notice whether they are or not.—World Call.

Unfurl the Flag

Apollo 17 astronauts Eugene Cernan (right) and Harrison (Jack) Schmitt unfurl the American flag following their landing on the lunar surface. The two men completed extensive explorations during their mission on the Moon. Apollo 17 is the last scheduled manned lunar landing. Photo is from CBS television coverage. (RNS Photo)

PASTOR'S CORNER

MERRY AFTER-CHRISTMAS
It's been said that December 26th is the BLAHEST day of the year. Everyone experiences let down after the excitement and anticipation of Christmas. The tree dropping in the corner has somehow lost its magic glow, here and there a dead branch falls off. Late-arriving Christmas cards receive little attention; 85% of the expensive toys you bought because the kids saw them advertised on TV are broken and litter the house like dead soldiers on a battlefield. The house is a mess. You flop on the couch and groan, "Thank goodness, that's over for another year."

THAT'S NOT THE WAY IT WAS THE FIRST CHRISTMAS
After the original one, there was no AFTER-CHRISTMAS BLAHS. Listen to what Luke says about the shepherds who went to the stable that memorable night to see Jesus: "AND THE SHEPHERDS RETURNED (THAT'S AFTER CHRISTMAS), GLORIFYING AND PRAISING GOD FOR ALL THE THINGS THAT THEY HAD HEARD AND SEEN, AS IT WAS TOLD UNTO THEM."

Here is the proper sequel to Christmas: glorifying and praising God for all He's done for us. If our heart has become another Bethlehem and Christ has been born there and dwells within, we'll have a great AFTER-CHRISTMAS.

What to do after Christmas? Begin the new year by glorifying and praising God through witnessing, praying, devotion to His church and allowing Christ to Live His Life through you.

MERRY AFTER-CHRISTMAS TO ALL OF YOU!

IT GETS BETTER EVERY YEAR
The Christmas music and drama, that is. Our appreciation to Jimell and all who had a part in the presentation last Sunday night (and Monday and Tuesday night at the mall!)

WHAT A YEAR THIS HAS BEEN!
Hasn't God been good to us? This is the greatest year in MBBC history! And it is evident to all concerned that the successes of this year, numerically, financially, and spiritually are the work of God. Ronald Dunn

VITAL STATISTICS

(week of December 17, 1972)
Budget — 6,208.95
Designated — 132.50
TOTAL — 6,341.45
BUILDING FUND — 1,200.00

A WORD FROM WARD

I pray you will use this holiday season to make some giant strides in your family life. These times together with your families can be very precious . . . but you'll have to be sensitive to the needs of those around you. This vacation can be a great laboratory for putting into practice all you've been learning.

HAYRIDE AND HOTDOGS — still on for Jan. 19.
PARENT/YOUTH BANQUET — Monday night, Feb. 12.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE — Sunday night after the evening worship. Bring 50c and your Bible.

As I See It!

MBBC'S BEAUTIFUL NEW WORSHIP CENTER
Our church voted at its last business meeting to build a new worship center, adult education, and office space. You will get periodic reports on the progress of both plans and construction.

UNOFFICIALLY, we are looking toward a football shaped worship center that will seat around 1500 people; adult education space for about 400-500; a new suite of staff offices; a library; and something less than one million dollars.

The Building Committee is meeting regularly and preliminary drawings will be available in a few weeks. Those serving on the committee are: BOB WALKER, CHAIRMAN; DON GARDNER; JACK SEARS; DUANE HULET; FRED LOUTHER; WILLIE COLE STEVE FELLOWS; AND NELSON MCKINNEY.

the Great Commission in Action

Our Basketball Program is in full swing and many boys are involved in learning how to share Christ from the basketball court. This is a real mission opportunity for we have some boys playing on our six teams that have never met the Saviour.

Speaking of mission opportunities: There is one that I think you might be interested in. There is a Mission organization in Garland, Texas (MISSIONARY TAPE SUPPLY) whose ministry is selling Biblical messages on tape, and assorted tape equipment. The tapes with messages cost $1.50 each. As you can see, the cost is very small. I personally make frequent orders and I receive a blessing and much instruction each time. Please pray for this man (Jay Cole) for it is entirely a Faith Ministry.

ATTENTION ALL JERSEY HOLDERS:
If you have not turned in your jersey and socks, PLEASE DO SO, for they are greatly needed. Thank you.

Ron Proctor

INTERCESSORY PRAYER MINISTRY

In the last of these brief studies on Great Intercessors, it is most appropriate that we should end with Jesus Christ, our Intercessor.

Isaiah PROPHESED that the Suffering Servant would become the link between Holy God and sinful man (Is. 53:12). His life and death would be the perfect Intercessory Prayer — commending us to His Father.

Jesus PRACTICED intercession in His earthly life. He prayed for healthless believers and they were healed; He prayed for a faithless follower and Peter preached at Pentecost (Lk. 22:31, Acts 2). In the last hours of His life, Jesus interceded for His followers both present and future and the Church exploded (John 17, Acts).

The ascension of Jesus is a continued PROMISE of His intercession. Paul says that intercession is one of the continuing ministries of the Glorified Lord (Rom. 8:34). Hebrews 7:25 echoes this blessed hope.

Beloved, there is no greater work than Intercession; there is no greater joy than Intercession

—World Religious News Roundup—

 PARADOX OF CHRISTIAN FAITH DISCUSSED
MINNEAPOLIS — Unless Christians understand the mandate of their faith to be both proclamation and service, even while distinguishing between them, the result of their efforts is likely to be hypocrisy on the one hand or futility on the other. Such a paradox, said the Rev. Dr. Harold Haas, is an underlying cause of the numerous restructuring decisions which are sweeping through major religious bodies currently.

The New Year

May the New Year bring trust between man and man, between nation and nation; On trust to build understanding, on understanding build love, and on love build peace. May joy make men willing to have good will towards one another out of which trust may grow . . . — Heria Rosenblatt, The Christian

—What Others Say—

IF OUR thoughts taste unkind, critical or unfair, we should refuse to release them into the dangerous world of words. — William A. Ward.

A PROUD man is never a grateful man, for he never thinks he gets as much as he deserves. — Henry Ward Beecher.

THE BEST compliment you can give the pastor's is the next

Intercessory Prayer Used as a Blurp
it is J. C. hospice heart.
rather dantly.
deal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he sends forth a tiny ripple of hope. — Robert F. Kennedy.

SOMETHING happens behind the closed door when we pray with hearts open to God. — Laura Trachsel.

I WILL do nothing this day without wanting Christ to be a part of it. — Joe Orduna.

—A Little Bit of Wit—

If you want to stay young, associate with young people. If you want to get old quick, try keeping up with them.—The Christian.

Song For New Year's Morning

Because I know Thy name, I trust in Thee, O God of grace;
Thy name my mighty tower of strength shall be,
My dwelling place,
Wherein I shelter find from fear of ill,
And rest beneath Thy shadow, and am still.

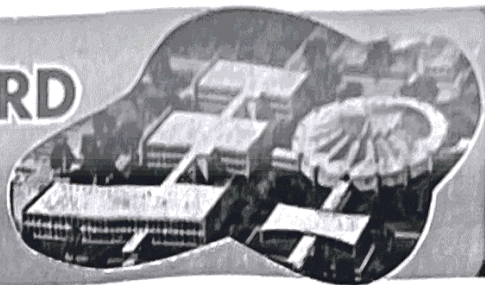

A new year dawns across this weary world,
But dark the day;
All red with blood sin's banners fly unfurled
Amid the grey.
Men's hearts are faint, and falling them for fear—
What hope, what faith, to meet this coming year?

In Thy great name alone, O Sovereign Love,
Is strength and song;
Thou reignest from Thy throne of power above,
And Thou art strong.
The keys of death and hell are in Thy hand,
And at Thy word must yield to Thy command.

My heart is fixed, Eternal God, on Thee,
O name most dear;
From fear of evil tidings I am free,
For Thou art near;
Thou wilt perfect all that concernest me,
Because I know Thy name, and trust in Thee.
—E. Margaret Clarkson, Moody Monthly

Worldwide Turmoil Hits Churches

Churchmen in many parts of the world are demonstrating that an era of religious turmoil and rebellion that began 10 years ago is far from over. Read a special reported from "U. S. News and World Report" and other stories on the inside pages of your own church newspaper.

WHAT A YEAR THIS HAS BEEN!

— For Thoughtful Reading —

WIDESPREAD NEED — We have entered the new year with special excitement because of the warm feelings left by the Christmas and New Year's celebrations. We remembered the poor, the crippled, the homeless. We expressed our appreciation to friends, the mailman, and the milkman. We sang beautiful carols. We honored the infant Jesus. We spent half a night's vigil on New Year's Eve — part of it at church.

Now that it is all over, we must ask whether all these activities really honored the Lord Jesus.

As we have noted in our scripture, God sometimes rejects the offerings men bring Him. Clearly, God is not interested in the offerings men bring Him unless they are accompanied by obedience of mind and heart.

The need is widespread to reexamine our lives, our sacrifices, and our obedience. Are we living to please ourselves and make a favorable impression on the public around us? or is the Lord real to us? — The Upper Room.

NEW YEAR, NEW LIFE — We can throw away the pages of our desk calendars, but we cannot throw away the days of the past. Some we would like to remember — days of joy, days of victory. Others we would like to forget — days of sorrow, days of defeat.

Paul tells us he is forgetting the past and looking forward eagerly to the future.

We can start on New Year's Day with a new calendar. This is a time for taking stock of ourselves. With Christ's help we can sweep away old resentments and prejudices. We can repent of our sins and find forgiveness. Then we can live with the forward look, for God forgives and forgets. — Helen G. Jefferson.

—The Lighter Side of Life—

ACCURATE CONCLUSION — A tourist stopped at a combination service station and general store in the back country. While his car was being serviced, he noticed an ol-timer basking in the afternoon sun and holding a short piece of rope.

The tourist walked over to him and asked, "What have you there?"

"This is a weather gauge, sonny," he said.

"How can you possibly tell the weather with a piece of rope?" the tourist wanted to know.

"It's simple, sonny," was the droll answer. "When the rope swings back and forth, it's windy and when it gits wet, it's raining." — The Link.

CHARITABLE — "Mother," said the little girl, "may I have a dime for the old man who is crying outside?"

"Yes, dear," replied Mama, "but what is he crying about?"

"He's crying: 'Ice cream cones-ten cents'" — The Christian.

NO REPEATS — Hubby: "I can't eat this stuff." Young Bride: "Never mind, dear, I have some lovely recipes for making leftovers."

Hubby: "In that case I'll eat it now." — Cheer.

—Post Script—

The happiest people are those who are too busy to notice whether they are or not.—World Call.

PASTOR'S CORNER

MERRY AFTER-CHRISTMAS

It's been said that December 26th is the BLAHEST day of the year. Everyone experiences let down after the excitement and anticipation of Christmas. The tree dropping in the corner has somehow lost its magic glow, here and there a dead branch falls off. Late-arriving Christmas cards receive little attention; 85% of the expensive toys you bought because the kids saw them advertised on TV are broken and litter the house like dead soldiers on a battlefield. The house is a mess. You flop on the couch and groan, "Thank goodness, that's over for another year."

THAT'S NOT THE WAY IT WAS THE FIRST CHRISTMAS

After the original one, there was no AFTER-CHRISTMAS BLAHS. Listen to what Luke says about the shepherds who went to the stable that memorable night to see Jesus: "AND THE SHEPHERDS RETURNED (THAT'S AFTER CHRISTMAS), GLORIFYING AND PRAISING GOD FOR ALL THE THINGS THAT THEY HAD HEARD AND SEEN, AS IT WAS TOLD UNTO THEM."

Here is the proper sequel to Christmas: glorifying and praising God for all He's done for us. If our heart has become another Bethlehem and Christ has been born there and dwells within, we'll have a great AFTER-CHRISTMAS.

What to do after Christmas? Begin the new year by glorifying and praising God through witnessing, praying, devotion to His church and allowing Christ to Live His Life through you.

MERRY AFTER-CHRISTMAS TO ALL OF YOU

IT GETS BETTER EVERY YEAR

The Christmas music and drama, that is. Our appreciation to Jimell and all who had a part in the presentation last Sunday night (and Monday and Tuesday night at the mall!)

WHAT A YEAR THIS HAS BEEN!

Hasn't God been good to us? This is the greatest year in MBBC history! And it is evident to all concerned that the successes of this year, numerically, financially, and spiritually are the work of God.

Ronald Dunn

VITAL STATISTICS

(week of December 17, 1972)

Budget — 6,208.95
Designated — 132.50
TOTAL — 6,341.45
BUILDING FUND — 1,200.00

A WORD FROM WARD

I pray you will use this holiday season to make some giant strides in your family life. These times together with your families can be very precious . . . but you'll have to be sensitive to the needs of those around you. This vacation can be a great laboratory for putting into practice all you've been learning.

HAYRIDE AND HOTDOGS — still on for Jan. 19.
PARENT/YOUTH BANQUET — Monday night, Feb. 12.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE — Sunday night after the evening worship. Bring 50c and your Bible.

As I See It!

MBBC'S BEAUTIFUL NEW WORSHIP CENTER

Our church voted at its last business meeting to build a new worship center, adult education, and office space. You will get periodic reports on the progress of both plans and construction.

UNOFFICIALLY, we are looking toward a football shaped worship center that will seat around 1500 people; adult education space for about 400-500; a new suite of staff offices; a library; and something less than one million dollars.

The Building Committee is meeting regularly and preliminary drawings will be available in a few weeks. Those serving on the committee are: BOB WALKER, CHAIRMAN; DON GARDNER; JACK SEARS; DUANE HULET; FRED LOUTHER; WILLIE COLE STEVE FELLOWS; AND NELSON MCKINNEY.

the Great Commission in Action MATTHEW 28:18-20

Our Basketball Program is in full swing and many boys are involved in learning how to share Christ from the basketball court. This is a real mission opportunity for we have some boys playing on our six teams that have never met the Saviour.

Speaking of mission opportunities: There is one that I think you might be interested in. There is a Mission organization in Garland, Texas (MISSIONARY TAPE SUPPLY) whose ministry is selling Biblical messages on tape, and assorted tape equipment. The tapes with messages cost $1.50 each. As you can see, the cost is very small. I personally make frequent orders and I receive a blessing and much instruction each time. Please pray for this man (Jay Cole) for it is entirely a Faith Ministry.

ATTENTION ALL JERSEY HOLDERS: If you have not turned in your jersey and socks, PLEASE DO SO, for they are greatly needed. Thank you.

Ron Proctor

INTERCESSORY PRAYER MINISTRY

In the last of these brief studies on Great Intercessors, it is most appropriate that we should end with Jesus Christ, our Intercessor.

Isaiah PROPHESED that the Suffering Servant would become the link between Holy God and sinful man (Is. 53:12). His life and death would be the perfect Intercessory Prayer — commending us to His Father.

Jesus PRACTICED intercession in His earthly life. He prayed for healthless believers and they were healed; He prayed for a faithless follower and Peter preached at Pentecost (Lk. 22:31, Acts 2). In the last hours of His life, Jesus interceded for His followers both present and future and the Church exploded (John 17, Acts).

The ascension of Jesus is a continued PROMISE of His intercession. Paul says that intercession is one of the continuing ministries of the Glorified Lord (Rom. 8:34). Hebrews 7:25 echoes this blessed hope. Beloved, there is no greater work than Intercession; there is no greater joy than Intercession

-World Religious News Roundup-

* PARADOX OF CHRISTIAN FAITH DISCUSSED

MINNEAPOLIS — Unless Christians understand the mandate of their faith to be both proclamation and service, even while distinguishing between them, the result of their efforts is likely to be hypocrisy on the one hand or futility on the other. Such a paradox, said the Rev. Dr. Harold Haas, is an underlying cause of the numerous restructuring decisions which are sweeping through major religious bodies currently.

Song For New Year's Morning

Because I know Thy name, I trust in Thee,
O God of grace;
Thy name my mighty tower of strength shall be,
My dwelling place,
Wherein I shelter find from fear of ill,
And rest beneath Thy shadow, and am still.

A new year dawns across this weary world,
But dark the day;
All red with blood sin's banners fly unfurled
Amid the grey.
Men's hearts are faint, and failing them for fear—
What hope, what faith, to meet this coming year?

In Thy great name alone, O Sovereign Love,
Is strength and song;
Thou reignest from Thy throne of power above,
And Thou art strong.
The keys of death and hell are in Thy hand,
And at Thy word must yield to Thy command.

My heart is fixed, Eternal God, on Thee,
O name most dear;
From fear of evil tidings I am free,
For Thou art near;
Thou wilt perfect all that concernest me,
Because I know Thy name, and trust in Thee.
—E. Margaret Clarkson, Moody Monthly

The New Year

May the New Year bring trust between man and man, between nation and nation; On trust to build understanding, on understanding build love, and on love build peace. May joy make men willing to have good will towards one another out of which trust may grow . . .

— Herta Rosenblatt, The Christian

—What Others Say—

IF OUR thoughts taste unkind, critical or unfair, we should refuse to release them into the dangerous world of words. — William A. Ward.

A PROUD man is never a grateful man, for he never thinks he gets as much as he deserves. — Henry Ward Beecher.

THE BEST compliment you can give the pastor's sermon is to bring a friend along to hear the next one. — W. E. Duesy.

REPENTANCE may be old-fashioned, but it is not outdated so long as there is sin. — J. C. Macauley.

'TIS THE season for kindling the fire of hospitality in the hall, genial fire of charity in the heart. — W. Irving.

WE THINK of death as ending; let us rather think of life as beginning, and that more abundantly. — Norman McLeod.

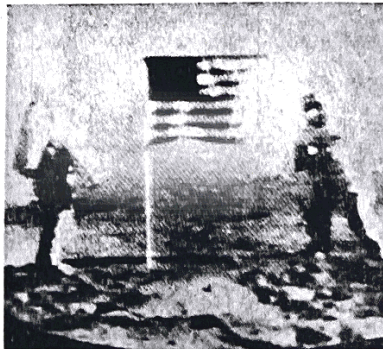

EACH TIME a man stands up for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he sends forth a tiny ripple of hope. — Robert F. Kennedy.

SOMETHING happens behind the closed door when we pray with hearts open to God. — Laura Trachsel.

I WILL do nothing this day without wanting Christ to be a part of it. — Joe Orduna.

—A Little Bit of Wit—

If you want to stay young, associate with young people. If you want to get old quick, try keeping up with them.—The Christian.

Unfurl the Flag

Apollo 17 astronauts Eugene Cernan (right) and Harrison (Jack) Schmitt unfurl the American flag following their landing on the lunar surface. The two men completed extensive explorations during their mission on the Moon. Apollo 17 is the last scheduled manned lunar landing. Photo is from CBS television coverage. (RNS Photo)

Worldwide Turmoil Hits Churches

Churchmen in many parts of the world are demonstrating that an era of religious turmoil and rebellion that began 10 years ago is far from over. Read a special report from "U. S. News and World Report" and other stories on the inside pages of your own church newspaper.