—For Thoughtful Reading—

YOUR CHARACTER SHOWS—A long time ago we used to live in a house that had a front door with a one-way glass in it. From the inside you could see who was ringing your doorbell without being seen yourself. It was quite a handy arrangement, though very unpopular with book agents. Most of us think we are like that—that persons on the outside have no way of knowing what we are like on the inside. But it seems that people don't come equipped that way. When we look out at life we reveal ourselves—whether we know it or not. Our attitude toward others shows to anybody who may be interested just what kind of people we are. That's what Seneca had in mind when he wrote, "Whatever one of us blames in another each one will find in his own heart." Cramps our style a bit, doesn't it? — Baptist Observer

PRICELESS INGREDIENT—There is an old legend to the effect that many years ago in Baghdad there lived a wise old man to whom many turned for advice. He gave his counsel freely to all, asking nothing in return.

One day there came to the wise old sage a young man who had spent much in life but had gotten little out of it. He inquired, "Tell me, wise one, what must I do to receive the most for that which I spend?"

Hakem the Wise replied, "A thing that is bought or sold has no value unless it contains that which cannot be bought or sold. Look for the priceless ingredient."

Perplexed, the young man asked, "But what is this priceless ingredient?"

Old Hakem thoughtfully replied, "My son, the priceless ingredient of every product in the market place is the honor and integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."

Each of us is known by the product we produce. Our influence and consideration is one ingredient that marks our integrity.—Action

—The Lighter Side of Life—

LARGESSE — A bewildered Englishman wandered into an American drugstore and asked for a small tube of toothpaste. The druggist handed him a package marked 'Large'.

"I'm afraid you didn't understand," the Britisher said. "I asked for a small tube."

"That's right, sir," was the answer, "it comes in three sizes — Large, Giant and Super. I gave you the small size—Large."—Cheer

EYE-IDENTIFIED — "My three boys stick together—when one boy gets into trouble, neither of the others will tell on him."

"Then how do you find out which one to punish?"

"It's easy. I send all three to bed without supper. The next morning I thrash the one with a black eye."—Virginia Methodist Advocate

APPRAISAL—A woman walked into an office and said, "Doctor, tell me frankly what's wrong with me."

"Well," he said, "first, you're too fat. Second, your clothes are too loud. Third, your makeup is all wrong. Fourth, I'm a photographer — the doctor's office is one flight up."—Lookout

—Post Script—

Violent exercise after the age of forty is harmful especially if you do it with a knife and fork. — The Christian.

PASTOR'S CORNER

I'm in Revival at the Central Baptist Church in Aurora, Colorado. This church is one of the finest churches I've been in. They are winning people to Christ as though the Lord were coming back tomorrow. Under the leadership of their pastor, Carey Miller, they are growing into one of the most dynamic churches in our convention. We're having a great meeting and we give God the glory. The church averages 450 in Sunday School; Sunday's attendance — 697,339 in Training Union and 30 additions to the church (with snow). Continue to pray for us.

Dr. Robert McGinnis, the new Superintendent of Missions for Dallas County, will be our preacher for this Sunday morning. Before coming to his present position, Dr. McGinnis was pastor of the Casa View Baptist Church in Dallas. I know you'll give him the usual MBBC warm welcome as he preaches the Word.

I'll return for the Christian Life class at 5:30 Sunday evening. There's no place like home, they say, and I say there's no church like MBBC. It'll be good to be back.

This week in Aurora has demonstrated to me anew what one church can do when it gets ready for revival. We have the top Southern Baptist Evangelist coming to our church. No other church evangelist has been used of God as effectively and consistently as Angel Martinez. God help us to take advantage of this opportunity. And God help us if we don't. When you're asked to serve on a revival committee, say "YES!"

Ronald Dunn

I hope you enjoyed HOT LINE. The newspaper committee hopes to make the paper a weekly event. If you have a contribution to HOT LINE, see one of the following people: Gina Phipps, Ann Badry, DeWayne Hart, Pam Bean, Steve Wells, Elaine Ernst, or me.

Thanks to the Garlands for the use of their house. Congratulations to Janet Redpath (7th grade) and Malcolm Mikeška (12th grade), our new Youth Council representatives.

DO YOU PLAY AN INSTRUMENT?

Some of you teenagers play an instrument. Some of you adults do too!

We want to organize an instrumental group at MacArthur, and we want you to help us. Come to a meeting at 4:00 P.M. this Sunday — do not bring an instrument to this first meeting. We will see just how many are interested and what instruments are available. Won't it be great to blow again?

Oh yes — any kind of instrument — band or orchestra. The meeting will be in the choir room.

SALT LAKE CITY

The MBBC Youth Mission Tour is to be July 26 to August 2. We plan to spend most of the week in Salt Lake City serving in a Home Mission Board sponsored crusade in the new sports arena. There will be responsibilities for youth who are not in choir as well as those who are. Why don't you plan to go with us?

Springtime

Springtime is laughter
Of boys and girls at play;
Blue skies holding cotton clouds
On a bright golden day.

Springtime is the beauty
Of lilacs, daffodils . . .
Redbud and white dogwood trees
In bloom on woodland hills.

"No country can afford to leave half of its population in ignorance," Rene Maheu, director-general of UNESCO, has said. Typical of efforts to educate neglected children is the classroom scene from one of Jordan's refugee camps for Arabs. —Kerygma Features Photo.
