REVIVAL CONTINUES THROUGH SUNDAY NIGHT

—For Thoughtful Reading—

LOOK UP—In these days of national frustrations, tragic disappointments, and human failure, our only hope is in God.

We never get anywhere in our spiritual living if we continually look down. The dark, the gloomy, the impossible—these are always found at our feet, and we stumble over the clods of human weakness and failure, because we so frequently look no higher than our heads. The upward look will lead us to the upward climb, and that is the only worthwhile direction in the spiritual life.

The psalmist declares, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the mountains; from whence shall my help come?"

The lowlands are filled with spiritual malaria, with disease and failure, but the highlands are surrounded by life-giving atmosphere.

Look up! — The Lookout

ENDURING GIFT — The minister had served his congregation 25 years. They wanted to give him a token of appreciation for his faithful ministry and decided on three things.

"Our pastor has a worn-out clock," they said, and gave him a beautiful new one. They were sure he could use some extra cash, and they gave him a check. For a third present, they gave him a beautiful Bible.

A week or two later, the officers of the church called on him about some business and found him meditating over God's Word in his study. When presently he left them alone a few minutes, one of the men noticed that there was an addition to the inscription they had written in the Bible. They read in handwriting:

"The check is gone; the clock is going; the Word of God abideth forever." —The Sunday Times

—The Lighter Side of Life—

CURVE SYSTEM—The student was explaining his poor grades to his irate father. "You just can't beat the system, Dad. Last year I decided to take basket weaving. It's a snap course. I figured I would sail through it. Know what happened?"

With a sigh of resignation his father said, "No, what happened?"

"Well—two Navajos enrolled, raised the class average, and I flunked." —Arkansas Baptist

COMMA-CAL—Sylvia: "When I applied for a job the manager had the nerve to ask if my punctuation was good."

Mildred: "What did you tell him?"

Sylvia: "I said I'd never been late for work in my life." —Cheer

BUGGY — John: "I'm having trouble with my eyes. I keep seeing purple grasshoppers, green ants, and pink termites."

Jim: "Have you seen a doctor?"

John: "No, just grasshoppers, ants, and termites." —Conquest

—Post Script—

He who cannot pray when the sun is shining will not know how to pray when the clouds come.

PASTOR'S CORNER

OUR "ANGEL MARTINEZ REVIVAL" WILL BE ALMOST HISTORY

by the time you receive this paper. We are constantly praising God for the great blessings He has poured out on us this past week.

Have you had a part in the love offering yet? Sunday night will be your last opportunity to show your love for these men of God through your offering. We're not paying Angel and Steve for the work they've done. Reaching the lost for Christ is not something you can pay for. A love offering is the response of grateful hearts to a gracious God.

Let's make this the best offering we've ever given any revival team. I know you'll do your best.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT MAY 20th, there will be a special called business meeting at which time our Personnel Committee will present to the church a recommendation for Recreational Director. I WANT YOU TO BEGIN PRAYING NOW ABOUT THIS SO WE'LL ALL BE PRAYED UP WHEN THE TIME COMES TO VOTE.

"IT'S BETTER THAN BEING SAVED," is the testimony of a member who has experienced "Real Revival" in the past few weeks in our church. It's great to see Christians discover that there's "more, so much more" to the Christian Life than just having your sins forgiven. God didn't intend for us to live the defeated lives that we lead. Everyday Victory is the birthright of every Christian. Deep, abiding peace and unspeakable joy is the privilege of every child of God. But so few of us experience this. Why? The answer, I believe, is found in the words of one of our members: Right after we're saved, we begin saying "No, Lord." It is only when we fully acknowledge the Lordship of Jesus in our lives that we enter into the Land of Canaan flowing with milk and honey.

REMEMBER, CHRISTIAN. God has more and more for you. Are you experiencing it in your daily life? In Romans 5 He promises that we will "live like kings" right now. Are we? I'm praying that God will continue to send revival in our hearts and that more and more of us will surrender our lives to His absolute Lordship.

Ronald Dunn

To all the people of MacArthur Blvd. Baptist Church we wish to express our gratitude and deep appreciation for all the prayers, personal contacts, food and flowers during the recent loss of our loved one,

Daybreak

The early morning Sun bursts through the trees, splashing on the ground a dancing little breeze.

Every little leaf heaving to and fro without any fear of ever feeling low.

Nature has a way of taking gentle heed and giving all her children everything they need.
