For Thoughtful Reading

SHRINKING AS WE RISE—A little girl was walking one day with her father in the main business section of a large city. Looking up, they saw some workmen walking about on a scaffold twenty stories above the street level. "Daddy," asked the child, "what are those little boys doing up there?"
"My dear," replied the father, "those are not little boys. Those are grown men. They just look like little boys because they are so high up."
The daughter thought for a moment, and then, looking into her father's face, solemnly said, "Daddy, if they keep on going up, they won't be an inch tall when they get to heaven, will they?"
Now it was the father's turn to be thoughtful, for the little child had uttered a truth far more profound than she had realized. As we rise toward heaven, self becomes smaller and smaller, until by and by, when we reach the height of heavenly character, self will scarcely be an inch tall.—The Lookout

WHAT NEXT?—Our great-grandfathers called it Holy Sabbath. Our grandfathers called it the Lord's day. Our fathers called it Sunday. We call it the weekend. In one area of the country the children call it "Funday" because of a cartoon show they see every Sunday.

It really makes no difference about the titles. They just help us to see how far our country has slipped spiritually. The Bible plainly teaches us that one-tenth of our means and one-seventh of our time belong to God. The day is not for our pleasure but for God's service. The day should be spent in activities that develop the soul. It is a day for worship, prayer, praise and service.

We rob ourselves of a day of spiritual development, and we begin to shrink our souls. Our nation is becoming more and more wicked. Our crime rates constantly rise. We think less and less of God and His service. We think increasingly of our own pleasure. Now that we have "Funday," I wonder what will come next.—War Cry

—The Lighter Side of Life—

EGOTISTICAL—A young man received a medal from organization which used very extravagant language in extolling his accomplishments and his greatness. Jubilantly the prize-winner went home and proudly repeated the words to his mother. Then he asked, "How many great men are there in the world today?"

His mother pondered for a while and then replied, "One less than you think."—Baptist Messenger.

BIG QUESTION—"I hear you have a boy in college. Is he going to become a doctor, an engineer, or a lawyer?"

"That I do not know," was the slow wistful answer. "Right now we are wondering: Is he going to become a sophomore?"—Christian Observer.

TACTLESS—Proud mother: "The baby is the living image of his father."

Friend: "Oh, I wouldn't mind, so long as he's healthy."—The Lookout.

IN STYLE—One good thing about the old days. When you bought a horse, you were fairly certain that the manufacturer wouldn't come out with a new model next year.—Arkansas Baptist.

An old-timer is someone who remembers when people who wore jeans worked.—Watchman-Examiner

PASTOR'S CORNER

SATURDAY NIGHT IS A BIG NIGHT. Jamall Badry will present a sacred concert. This will surely be one of the highlights of the revival. Many of you remember the concert Jamall gave in his last meeting with us and how greatly God used it. I suspect you'd better come early to get a good seat. It starts promptly at 7:30 P.M.

ALSO ON SATURDAY NIGHT we want a large group of juniors here as we present achievement awards to the three boys and three girls who have accumulated the most points during the week. Each night at 7:00 we've been meeting with the juniors and have had a great time. I appreciate the contribution they've made to the revival.

GREAT THINGS ARE BEING PLANNED MUSICALLY SUNDAY MORNING AND SUNDAY EVENING. To miss either of these services will be to miss only from the choirs but from God. For if He isn't present a great experience. We're expecting great things not in power, all is in vain. Pray hard for these final services of our revival.

HAVE YOU MADE YOUR LOVE OFFERING YET? God has richly blessed us this past week and we want to show our appreciation in a tangible way. Remember that Jamall is a full-time evangelistic singer, receiving no salary from any church or organization. He lives completely on what he receives in meetings such as this. Our church has always done the right thing in this matter, and I know this week will be no exception. A love offering will be taken Sunday morning and Sunday evening. Plan now to give.

With the climax of our revival only a couple of days away, I want to thank every member of MDDC who participated. Special thanks goes to the members of both choirs who have attended and sung so faithfully. Your contribution made big difference in the meetings.

OUR HEARTS GO OUT IN CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY to Norman and Margie Head in the loss of their son, Mike. I visited with Mike last week and he happily told me he was a Christian and was praying for our revival. I've never seen a braver little man. This is a time of real difficulty for the family and we need to pray much for them. "CALL UNTO ME, AND I WILL ANSWER THEE, AND SHOW THEE GREAT AND MIGHTY THINGS WHICH THOU KNOWEST NOT." Jer. 33:3.

WMS GENERAL MEETING; GUEST SPEAKER FROM BELGIUM

We are honored to have Mrs. Geertje Kuhn from Belgium as guest speaker for our General WMS meeting, Tuesday, November 4, 10:00 A.M.

Geertje says, after coming to America from her native Belgium that she and her husband, Eduard were happy to discover that they were not the only Baptists in the world.

Eduard is working on a physiology research project at Southwestern Medical School, and the Flemish visitors are impressed with Baptist-rich Dallas.

There is only one Baptist church and one Baptist school serving six million Dutch-speaking people in Belgium. The church, which is pastored by her father, has 50 members; and 128 children attend the school.

The population is strongly pro-catholic, and protestant youngsters often find public or Catholic schools hostile to them socially and academically.

Eduard and Geertje Kuhn plan to return to their home in Ghent, where Eduard teaches in a university, in late November.

OUR SCHEDULE:
November 4, 1969 Single Adult Dept. (middle building, upstairs)
9:30 AM—Coffee Time
10:00 AM—Business Meeting
10:30 AM—Guest Speaker (The WMS of Pioneer Drive will be our guest also)
11:30 AM—Covered dish lunch
Plan to come and bring a friend.

130 IN THE REVIVAL CHOIR
The Revival Choirs, Adult and Youth, have been nothing short of tremendous but of course words cannot describe what has taken place. The choir have done to help pastor-evangelist Dunn preach the Gospel each night — Thank you everyone.

JAMALL HERE SUNDAY NIGHT
Both choirs need to be present Sunday morning immediately after Sunday School and Sunday evening at 4:30 to rehearse for the final revival service.

4th, 5th, 6th GRADERS ONLY
I enjoyed meeting a while with you Sunday evening. I am sure that there are more of you who will be coming to choir, so why not get started right away. Bring a friend this Sunday at 5:30 P.M. Sure it will be work but you will be pleased with the way you sound and sing in a few months from now and also, kids it will be a lot of fun.

THANK YOU ALL
I have never been accepted or treated in a more gracious manner anywhere and I want to thank you all. You are just great. May God bless each of you according to your every need.

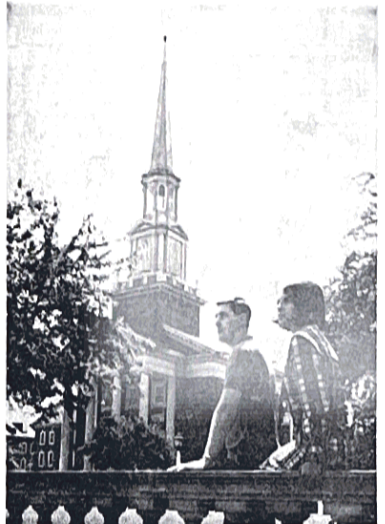

Jimell Badry

 INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS EXPLORED
NEW YORK, N. Y. (LC) — Discussions with two men highly placed in world affairs, interviews with various United Nations agencies, formal addresses by three men from their own midst, and several hours of dialogue with each other helped 35 Lutheran leaders examine the role of their churches in international relations in a workshop on international affairs in the Church Center for the United Nations here. The Office of Public Affairs of the Lutheran Council in the USA sponsored the event.

Youth

Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. 1 Timothy 4:12

—What Others Say—

TO BECOME like Christ is the only thing in the world worth caring for, the thing before which every ambition on man is folly and all lower achievement vain.—Henry Drummond.

GOD HAS given us two hands: one to receive with and the other go to give with.—Billy Graham

NO MAN CAN bring another man closer to Christ than he is himself.—Dwight L. Moody.

HE WHO loves not, lives not, he who lives by the Life can never die.—Raymond Lull.

GOD WILL never leave one whom He has chosen for His own.—Charles H. Spurgeon.

I AM CONVINCED that the universe is under the control of a loving purpose and that in the struggle for righteousness man has cosmic companionship.—Martin Luther King Jr.

THE SPIRIT of Christ is the spirit of missions, and the nearer we get to Him the more intensely missionary we must become.—Henry Martyn.

THE CHRISTIANITY which is shared is the Christianity which is convincing.—Lynn Harold Hough.

A SAINT is simply a human being whose soul has grown up to its full stature by full and generous response to its environment.—God.—Evelyn Underhill.

THERE IS MUCH that is wrong with our Christian witness, but the thing that is most wrong is the absence of joy.—William C. Nelson.
