

Phil 4: 11-13

learned to be content

learned vs 11

I am instructed vs 12 } This is not smelly

That comes ~~was~~ at once in a categorical experience =
it is learned = Time + experience

vs 12 = Everywhere & in all things I am instructed = Everything is a lesson - everything teaches us = Class
is never dismissed, school never out, no

Miss =

If learn to be content = must ~~have~~ experience

good & bad = abused & abroad =

If short on abuse, you've not learned sufficiency.

What do these things teach us? That I am

X I am strong for all things, therefore,

I've learned to be content because

I've learned to be complete in X

^{Teach}

- The things in vs 12 are sent to force us
to discover the Truth vs 13

until you face something that demands a greater strength than you possess, you'll never discover the completeness that is in X.

Content in circumstance because

complete in X
