

Alan Redpath - entirely voluntary = any absence will diminish you

I. Prayer is the work of the Saints

1. It is an admission of dependence
The principle by which Jesus himself lived
2. It is an expression of Faith - confidence
Mark 11 = the faith of a
- 3 ways of relating Faith = acting,
asking,
abiding

II. Prayer is the work of the Spirit vs 12

1. He comes in answer to prayer of Jesus
2. He comes to activate the prayer of believers
Rom 8: 26, 27
(1 Perseverance, 2 Polition, 3 Power)

III. Prayer is the work of the Father

"I will do it"

- Prayer is the execution arm of God's will
- " " " only omnipotence granted to man
- nothing else beyond prayer except which lies beyond

1 - Prayer w/ His Sanction = that which he approves, consistent w/ all His name means

2 - Prayer for His sake = just question =

"Lord, what do you want, what are you after?"

- I represent Jesus - His purpose,

first, ascertain, what is His purpose - not my want

John Wesley: God does nothing except thru prayer

- Morley: Every great movement of God can be traced to a kneeling figure
