to ministers = you can't separate the man from the ministry - it is the life that ministers, not the talent or ability - one of greatest defects is trying to divorce the life from the service - D. T. Priest could not minister when he himself was contaminated - his ability not impaired - the acceptability of the giver determine the acceptability of the gift

- The powerlessness, barrenness of ministry is not due to faulty methods & means - usually will try to correct it by new program, etc - but the answer is the life of the minister = Vine & Branches - 2 Cor 4:4 - John 12:26 - fruit isn't result, methods, etc, but life - healthy life.

Preaching - not moralizing or motivating - too much "preaching" is moralizing, inspiring us to do better - it appeals to the nature of man
